PHIL NEAL

LEAVING the game aside for a moment, I would like to offer a few thoughts and a few words of support for all our boys in the Gulf. I have received a large amount of letters from the troops and in every case sent a reply enclosing a Bolton Wanderers souvenir—a penant, a programme, etc. The troops out there are obviously in all our thoughts at the present time but I can tell you that many of them are thinking of us too. They are listening for our results on the World Service and supporting us, despite their obvious difficulties, from afar. Let us hope that all our people out there are soon home, safe and sound.

Back to tonight, I would like to extend a warm Bolton welcome to Phil Holder and his Brentford boys who, like ourselves, are chasing promotion.

They came unstuck at the weekend but we have seen enough this season already to know that they are a powerful unit and will give us a very difficult game.

I think everyone who was at Old Trafford for the F.A. Cup tie last week will accept that we have shown with that performance that we are capable of competing with the best. We all enjoyed that day and I'm sure there are more occasions like that to come in the future.

But the hardest thing is getting there. That is why we all have to make the effort to move up the ladder. All other considerations are out of the window and our only aim now is promotion.

Again, and I make no excuses for repeating myself, it is important that we have your support as we try to push forward. The team has shown often enough that they can respond to your vocal support—especially when things are not going all that well.

So I am asking you, starting here tonight, to give us that little bit extra to keep the ball rolling.

An update of today's opposition

BRENTFORD

This evening we welcome the players, officials and supporters of Brentford to Burnden Park. Surprisingly beaten 1-2 at home to bottom club Rotherham last Saturday, the Bees will be anxious to close the three point gap between themselves and the Wanderers by repeating last April's victory at Burnden, earned thanks to an 8th minute Dean Holdsworth goal.

Brentford are currently placed fifth with 42 points from 26 games. Away from home this term they have won at Mansfield (2-0), Bradford (1-0), Reading (2-1) and Birmingham (2-0) and drawn at Swansea, Rotherham, Preston, Exeter, Stoke and Crewe. In their last away game Brentford went down 0-2 at Bournemouth, a result which ended a run of nine games undefeated in the League. They recovered from this to beat in-form Swansea 2-0 at Griffin Park before last Saturday's shock defeat. Against Rotherham, Keith Jones gave the Bees a 15th minute lead but the visitors recovered to score twice in the second-half, the winner coming from Tony Cullen, on loan from Sunderland, one minute from the end.

Having been in the Third Division longer than any other current side, since 1978, Brentford began the season as one of the promotion favourites. Last season they recovered from a disastrous start to finish a creditable 13th. This after they began the New Year in 24th position. A run of seven wins and a draw in 8 games in January and February took Brentford up to 9th before a bout of injuries put paid to any hopes of a play-off spot.

The injury crisis did enable to club to blood a number of their emerging young players in the first-team. Jason Cousins, Marcus Gayle, Rob Peters, Paul Buckle and Andy Driscoll, all products of the trainee ranks, were given valuable Third Division experience.

The resignation of manager Steve Perryman in August threatened to disrupt the Bees' early season preparation. Perryman, now at Watford, was replaced by his assistant Phil Holder to ensure continuity at Griffin Park. Holder, a former player of Spurs, Crystal Palace and Bournemouth, had been at the club since February, 1987.

The return of striker Gary Blissett, after missing the early months of the season due to injury, has helped boost the Bees' good tally. Blissett leads the way with 13 goals in League and cup. Last season's scoring sensation Dean Holdsworth, who notched 24 goals after joining the club from Watford in September 1989, has found the going harder second time around (though he has scored in his last three games against Bolton) and Brentford's tally of 35 League goals has been spread around 11 players with midfielder Keith Jones second in the list with five goals.

Only minor changes to the side have been made this season. Graham Bestead has replaced last

EXTRA PROMOTION PLACES PROVIDE ADDED INCENTIVE

With more promotion places available this season than ever before in Football League history, clubs in every Division now have additional incentives and a greater chance of being involved in the promotion race right up to the final stages of the season. Indeed, these greater opportunities should have a significant positive effect on attendances as the season approaches its climax. The ups and downs are shown below:

PROMOTION AND RELEGATION SEASON 1990-91

Division One (Two down) Bottom two clubs relegated.

Division Two (Four up two down) Top three clubs automatically promoted, plus one from the next four placed clubs via the play-offs. Bottom two clubs relegated.

Division Three (Four up three down) Top three clubs automatically promoted, plus one from next four placed clubs via the play-offs. Bottom three clubs relegated.

Division Four (Five up none down) Top four clubs automatically promoted, plus one from the next four placed clubs via the play-offs. No relegation. Football Conference champions promoted to The Football League.

1991/92 Div. One 22, Div. Two 24, Div. Three 24, Div. Four 23. Football League-93 clubs.

1992/93 Div. One 22, Div. Two 24, Div. Three 24, Div. Four 24. Football League-94 clubs.

GROUNDSMEN TO PITCH IN AT SEMINARS

The Football League, in conjunction with the Sports Turf Research Institute, has organised two one-day seminars for the groundsmen from all 92 professional clubs. The regional meetings, which will be held at Old Trafford and Highbury in the first week of February, were organised by The Football League's Playing Surfaces Sub Committee whose primary aim is to raise the overall standard of natural playing surfaces.

Lectures will be given by officials from the Sports Turf Research Institute and will cover topics such as construction methods and standards, dose season maintenance, drainage and care of the pitch during the playing season.

LEAGUE APPOINT NEW MARKETING EXECUTIVE

Steve Sutherland, who for the last three years was Charlton Athletic's Commercial manager, has been appointed as The Football League's new Marketing Executive. Steve will be based at The Commercial and Marketing Department's offices in Central London.

Steve's responsibilities will primarily be directed at providing a service for club commercial departments which will include the development of the Product Services Division, provision of research material, database marketing services, sales training and promotional marketing techniques. He will also assist in developing central licensing and merchandising promotions.

Captain Phil Brown came through his training injury scare to keep intact his unbeaten run in the team since joining us from Halifax in 1988. Phil in fact marked dangerman Lee Sharpe out of the game in the F.A. Cup tie at Manchester United proving once again that their aren't many better full backs in the game than the Wanderer's skipper.

Wanderers new boy Mark Patterson weaves his way through the Shrewsbury midfield.

NEW DATE FOR EXETER MATCH

Tuesday, 26th March, 1991. — 7.30 p.m. — is the night that has been arranged for the home League match with Exeter City. Our F.A. Cup tie with Barrow was the original date for the game (5th January) but now Terry Cooper's boys, including former Wanderer Trevor Morgan, will be visiting us on the last Tuesday of March.

A look at some of the great soccer stars

When Paul's footballing career ended he eventually took up after dinner speaking at Sportsman's Evenings, recalling funny incidents he had experienced in the game and he quickly became a wanted man on the circuit.

He caught the eye of a gentleman called Graham White who invited him to become commercial manager with Colne Dynamos in the H.F.S. Loans League, to give Paul his initial opportunity on football's commercial ladder. Mr White, a successful businessman himself, was wholly committed to Dynamos and had an ambition to take them to the big time. The signs were there as he guided them to a Wembley appearance in the late '80's.

Paul Fletcher is now ready to be appointed Chief Executive with next Saturday's visitors to Burnden, Huddersfield Town. He is delighted to sign a 3 year contract with Town.

Sadly Colne have since gone to the wall. "I left the Club literally one week before closure but I genuinely didn't know anything about it" insists Paul. "They had won the league by 27 points" he said, "and in my twelve months there, they only lost three games. Graham White had a good team."

"I'm always thankful to B.W.F.C."

The progression of Colne was halted due to necessary Ground improvements. Paul added, "Mr White was informed that a lot of things needed doing but no one would tell him what was required. He actually didn't get any help to be promoted, but he is a fabulous fellow".

Firmly settled in at Huddersfield, Paul has another invaluable asset in George Binns. Paul said, "He's been at Leeds Road about 20 years and knows the Club inside out. I'm pleased to have him alongside. George set up commercial activities at the Club years ago when the price of advertising boards was £50."

Explaining the importance of off the field activities in modern day sport, Paul said, "When you consider that 13% of the total income of our national stadiums comes from football leaving 87% from other sources. Football clubs open once every two weeks. It's my job to get the Club opened every day."

Paul possesses a diary of events and is currently organising a Club Golf Day.

"I keep a close watch on Bolton and I'm always thankful to them. But for Nat I would probably be a bus conductor today" Paul admits.

Bolton born Phil Stant has been on loan from Notts County over the past month but Paul thinks the striker may have returned to Meadow Lane by the time the Terriers visit Burnden.

Bolton and Huddersfield have met three times already this season in League and Cup. Fans will recall in form Dave Felgate saving two penalties from the encounters.

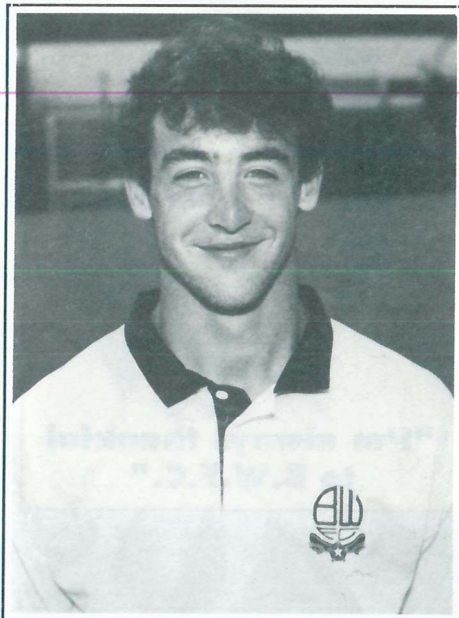

Paul sees Saturday's clash as important to both Clubs.

When Phil Neal splashed out £50,000 last March to bring 20 year old Scott to Burnden Park from Derby County it did raise quite a few eyebrows because the Midlands born youngster had yet to play in a first team game for the Rams. The investment though is already looking to be sound judgement on the part of the manager with Scott proving to be a most valuable member of the playing squad.

Scott began his football education playing for Darlaston Comprehensive School in Walsall, graduating to the district team. It was here that he was spotted by the then Derby County chief scout Ron Dukes who is now at Wolves, it was he who was instrumental in taking him to the Baseball Ground on a two year YTS apprenticeship.

Working his way through the A team and reserves, Scott played mainly as a centre-forward for the Midlands outfit and even enjoyed a six month loan spell playing in Finland for where he scored 32 goals in just 24 games, an experience he really did enjoy. "It was great, even though the cost of living is far greater than over here I had a smashing time and even contemplated moving over there permanently before Bolton moved in for me" he said.

We asked him how did he hear about the interest from Bolton last season. "Well I was suspended at the time and was just about ready to travel over to Manchester City to see our reserves side play when manager Arthur Cox phoned me and asked whether I was interested in joining Bolton Wanderers. I made my mind up there and then to sign and I have had no regrets so far. Even though I have recently been on the subs bench it's just a case of waiting patiently for another chance to get back into the action" he stated.

Scott made his debut for the club last April in the home defeat against Shrewsbury coming on as a second half substitute but in his first full home game for the club just a week later he became an instant hero with the Burnden faithful when he scored the only goal of the game against promoted Bristol City with him adding, "That game sticks in my mind vividly because of the goal. I just saw an opening in front of me and hit the ball from about twenty-five yards out and fortunately it went in". He also scored another stunner just a few days later against Huddersfield earning himself something of a reputation for scoring spectacular goals.

After the side's slow start to the season, Scott is optimistic that the second half of the campaign is going to be fruitful for the Wanderers. "We've got through our bad period, hopefully proving our critics wrong. The set up we have got at Bolton is great and the team spirit among the lads is first class" he added.

One thing is certain for sure, that competitiveness is as keen on the snooker table as it is on the football field for young Scott who teams up with David Reeves to face arch rivals 'the Geordie Boys' Phil Brown and Tony Philliskirk. "It's deadly serious with breaks of 30/40 often to be seen when the action hots up and the stakes are high also", he added with a rueful smile.

With him just recently turning twenty-one, Scott has time on his side but he is determined to force himself into the side again after his recent spell on the bench. "Of course my objective is a regular first team spot with hopefully promotion achieved at the end of the season. It can be frustrating watching but I have got to be patient, it's great though having the fans keep encouraging" added Scott.

There's no doubting that Scott Green has a big future in front of him. Already this season he has popped up with important goals against promotion rivals Grimsby and Southend, and as we approach the important part of the season with two games a week to fit in he could well prove to be one of the ace cards in manager Phil Neal's pocket.

RESERVES NEWS

A look at the club reserves

Tonight we take an update of the fortunes of our Reserve side as they chase one of the promotion places in the Second Division of the Pontins Central League.

Steve Carroll, the Wanderers Reserve Team Coach, has had to put up with a number of postponed games in recent weeks, due to the bad weather. But he reflects on the season so far. "It's been good up to now, we've managed to keep a settled side for the majority of the time. Competition for places has been healthy and we've a good blend of youth and experience" he stated.

The Reserve side suffered much the same as the first team at the beginning of the season, with injuries having a knock-on effect throughout the Club, leaving the second team outfit very much under-strength. This of course didn't help results on the park with the Reserves suffering their only three defeats to date in their first four matches.

"That's right, we had to play youngsters who were not quite ready for it, but we've done very well since with the wealth of experienced professionals blending well with the young lads" he added.

We asked him — Had any team performances stood out so far in the campaign? "Quite a few really, but the one that springs to mind is the home match with Port Vale in December. They had a strong team out that night, but our lads played some great stuff. Unfortunately, the chances would not go in and we had to settle for a 1-1 draw in the end."

As coy as ever, when we asked him about the prospect of promotion to the First Division — "We'll take each game as it comes. It goes without saying that we are looking to go Up, that would be a good test facing the Manchester United's and Liverpool's, but there is still a long way to go" he added.

The impressive run that the Reserves have achieved since September has left everyone at Burnden Park optimistic that a 'Promotion Double' can be achieved, come May.

REVIEWING 1973...

Our fine away victory at Birmingham saw us encounter yet another programme priced at the £1 level.

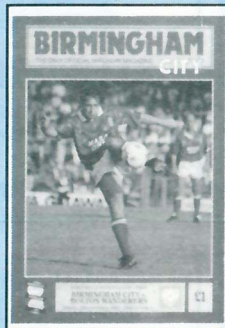

A colourful cover failed to hide an overall disappointing issue in which the highlights were 'Terrace Talk' and 'Scene on Three'. At least these two articles did make interesting reading. The coverage of the Wanderers was indeed basic to say the least and never mentioned current form. The spread of colour throughout the issue was quite good but far better use of the photographs could have been made use of.

It's a disappointing effort from Birmingham after last season's fine programme and it really does prove the point that a little bit of colour does not justify such a big increase in price.

SAFE HANS

A lighthearted look at football

TWENTY ONE TO GO

The importance of the next twenty one league games cannot be stressed highly enough, that's what I say, with no FA Cup or Leyland DAF Cup to be side-tracked with, the one single objective must now be aimed for with full speed ahead. Tonight's encounter with promotion rivals Brentford is a real six pointer and gives us the opportunity to see how far we have progressed since our defeat at Griffin Park back in September.

Phil Holder's side have one of the best away records in the third division at present so it is likely to be a very exciting game that we have in prospect this evening with hopefully the same sort of numbers that followed us to Old Trafford just over a week or so ago, now in attendance.

That really was a great day out, marvellous support plus a fantastic team effort from the lads that so very nearly earned us a replay down here at Burnden. We had all sorts of interviews and articles ready for the programme, like 'Safe Hans Meets Jim Leighton' or 'Ten ways not to tackle Bryan Robson and get sent off', just to name two, but joking apart it really is a superb stadium it's just unfortunate that they are having such problems with the pitch, but that does not seem to be affecting the deadly Mark Hughes who took the only chance that came his way. Never mind though we can hold our heads high even if we did all lose our voices by the end of the match, out-shouting the United fans.

After the match

we heard a relieved United Manager Alex Ferguson praise the Bolton side and gave words of encouragement towards our fortunes in the near future. Praise indeed, but we all know that there's still a lot of hard work to be done on and off the field if we are to get back where we belong at the higher levels. We know for a fact that there is a big dormant level of support in and around the town but it still needs success to attract many fans. Just look at Oldham's story with Joe Royle doing a super job for a number of years down at Boundary Park. It's only really this season that they have attracted an average attendance of above 10,000 and that you can point to last season's Wembley visit in the Littlewoods Cup and the FA Cup Semi-finals meetings with Manchester United to awaken interest or create new support for the club.

Just looking at ourselves for a moment or two and it's only four months or 17 league games ago that we attracted a home crowd of just 3631. We weren't doing well that's obvious, but with the Mansfield contingent of around 300 it brought our home support to not many over 3,000, bringing home the fine dividing line between success and failure and that was only after eight league matches. Let's just hope tonight the majority of the 10,000 fans we took to Old Trafford come down and give us the same sort of support we had that day.

A look back at the recent past

SIMON MARLAND

Fellow promotion rivals Brentford will tonight be looking to keep up their improved run of results at Burnden having won on three of their last five visits.

Prior to this Brentford could claim just one success in their previous nine games against Bolton at Burnden, this began in the opening day of the 1935/36 season when they returned to London with a 2-0 win in a first division encounter.

The Wanderers have also improved their results at Griffin Park in recent history with their first win on the ground coming in November 1986 by 2-1 and losing only twice in the last five visits.

The clubs first met at second division level in September 1933 at Burnden. The Wanderers were up with the divisions pace-setters having won 5-1 at Manchester United and 2-0 at home to Bury in previous weeks.

Brentford went two goals up through Fletcher and Hopkins to silence the crowd of 9894. Ray Westwood reduced the arrears just before the interval and Jack Milson volleyed the equaliser in the 69th minute.

In the final minute Jack Milsom got clean through only to be tripped from behind.

He got up to convert a penalty to give the Wanderers a 3-2 victory.

Since the war

Brentford's league worth for Brentford visits to Burnden have been all that separated the sides in last season's fixture here at exception of one first division encounter in May 1947 when Lol Hamlett's penalty won 4-2 at Griffin Park. Bolton had twice got back on level terms with goals from Scott Green and David Reeves but late efforts from Keith Jones and Dean Holdsworth put Brentford back in front.

Goals from Peter Nicholson and John Byrom earned the Wanderers a 2-0 win and the third division championship whilst the Bees slipped into division four.

An 8th minute goal from Dean Holdsworth

Belfast born Billy McAdams began his career with Distillery in the Irish League before joining Manchester City in December 1953.

The centre forward was a prolific goalscorer at Maine Road scoring 61 times in 127 league appearances before moving to Burnden for a £15,000 fee in September 1960.

He made his debut against Chelsea at Burnden scoring twice in a 4-1 win, the first success of the season at the fifth attempt.

At the end of his first term he was the clubs leading goalscorer, despite suffering from injury, also hitting goals in international games for Northern Ireland against both England and West Germany.

In December 1961 he moved to Leeds United for a £12,000 fee but remained there only six months before going south to join Brentford. He scored 36 goals in 75 league appearances for the Bees before moving across London to Queens Park Rangers.

He ended his league career back in the North West at Barrow where he helped them to promotion to division three.

His Bolton record is as follows:-

SEASON BY SEASON

A look back at years gone by

1936/37 SEASON

Two new faces appeared in the Wanderers side for the opening day visit to Brentford which resulted in a 2-2 draw.

Firstly, George Ainsley, a £2000 buy from Sunderland, was at inside right whilst at outside left David Halford made his debut after arriving from Derby County. Unfortunately neither signing was successful, Ainsley's stay lasting only until December when he was sold to Leeds after only 7 appearances, whilst Halford took to the field in only 5 games during the season.

GTTaylor commenced his seventh consecutive season without missing a game his sequence beginning on April 12th 1930 for Notts County at Southampton.

Worrying times for the club were ahead with the team being far from consistent, thus a stable first division place, which was needed from a financial angle, was not assured.

The early season saw many drawbacks. Centre half Jack Atkinson fractured a shin bone in a home 0-0 draw with Preston and with only one win in the opening seven games the team were placed 20th in the table. One bright spot was the debut of Stan Hanson on September 19th in a 2-0 reverse at Huddersfield. Stan was to become another famous Wanderers custodian even serving the club when his playing days were over.

Another debutante was Ron Bower, an ex South Liverpool full back, he first appeared in a 3-2 win at Wolves but the same side was unable to play successive games due to injury. The jinx even struck GT Taylor when he ended a consecutive run of 290 1st class games for Notts County and Bolton when he missed the 3-1 home defeat by Derby County through a twisted knee.

The first occasion that the side were unchanged was in the 12th game of the season, a 1-1 draw at Birmingham where the Wanderers goal came from 18 years old Don Howe, a Wakefield youth who had also recently received his league baptism.

Crowds during December went down to 13439 for the visit of Chelsea but doubled for the visit of league leaders Charlton Athletic, the Wanderers winning 2-1, Jack Milsom also missing a penalty in each half.

Three consecutive home games during the Christmas period culminated in just a single point being collected with heavy defeats being handed out by Manchester United and Arsenal. A crowd of only 11801 saw the 4-0 reverse by fellow strugglers United whilst three days later, on New Years Day, 42,179 saw Arsenal win 5-0, Ted Drake netting 4 of their goals.

The management realised that the team had to be urgently strengthened. During January and February four new signings, three within the space of six days, joined the club. Alf Anderson, a left winger from Hibernian, Alec Carruthers, a right winger from Falkirk, John Calder, a centre forward from Morton the most expensive at £4000 and Harry Hebbick, a left back from Burnley, all came to Burnden whilst Jack Rimmer went in the opposite direction to Turf Moor after seven seasons with the Wanderers.

February was a dark month when a 3-0 defeat at Derby put Bolton into a relegation spot and an exit from the FA Cup was handed out when Manchester City won 5-0 at Burnden before 60,979. The referee, whose unorthodox decisions had cost Bolton dearly, required a police escort from the field at the end of the game.

March opened with a scoreless home draw against Birmingham but the crowd of 21,572 was exceptional considering the club's poor league position, along with the fact that 9 home league defeats had already been suffered giving an average to date of almost 21,000 excluding 3050 season ticket holders.

The first league win of 1937 came on March 20th, when the FA Cup semi finalists West Brom were beaten 4-1, despite the fact that they had taken a 5th minute lead.

This prompted the desired effect with only two of the final eight games ending in defeat. The highlights of this run in were a 2-2 draw with eventual champions Manchester City at Maine Road, Don Howe hitting the Wanderers equaliser seven minutes from time, and a 1-0 win at Chelsea that was worth its weight in gold as the other struggling clubs slipped up to leave the club in a final position of 20th just two points clear of a relegation spot.

The season proved financially heavy to hold on to a first division place with a loss of over £12,000 being the largest in the football league. To help offset this George Eastham was sold to Brentford for £4,500 after losing his place in the team during March.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

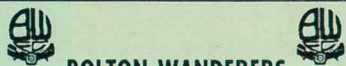

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
